

Definition: The division of governmental powers among different persons or institutions in such a way that no one individual or group can dominate or control the exercise of power by others.	Synonym	Definition: Parts of government (e.g., Legislative, Judicial, and Executive). Each branch has its own responsibilities and limitations.	Synonym
Balancing Powers		Branches
Use in a Sentence	Represent to Learn	Use in a Sentence	Represent to Learn
Definition: The distribution and balancing of power among different branches of government so that no one branch is able to dominate the others.	Synonym	Definition: The authority to carry out and enforce the law.	Synonym
Checking Powers		Executive Power
Use in a Sentence	Represent to Learn	Use in a Sentence	Represent to Learn

Definition: The power to interpret and applies the laws and settles disputes	Synonym	Definition: The power to make laws.	Synonym
Judicial Power		Legislative Power
Use in a Sentence	Represent to Learn	Use in a Sentence	Represent to Learn
Definition: The division of powers among the different branches of government. In the United States, the powers are divided among the legislative, executive, and judicial branches.	Synonym	Definition: The highest court in the United States; the judicial branch.	Synonym
Separation of Powers		United States Supreme Court
Use in a Sentence	Represent to Learn	Use in a Sentence	Represent to Learn

